

British Association for Applied Linguistics

Corpus SIG Day 16th April 2004

University Of Birmingham

Timetable

9:00am	Registration and coffee
10:00am	Welcome
10:15am	Hilary Nesi University of Warwick	Enumeration in British and American lectures
10:45am	Alison Sealey and Paul Thompson University of Reading	'The bravest knight in the whole land': a corpus analysis of writing for children
11:15am	Coffee Break
11:30am	Michael Stubbs University of Trier	On very frequent phrases in English: distributions, functions and structures
12:30pm	Business Meeting
1:00pm	Lunch
2:00pm	Minako Yamada University of Cambridge	Interfacing corpus linguistics and sociocultural theory as a research methodology
2:30pm	Richard Badger University of Leeds	Investigating argument through concordancing
3:00pm	Maggie Charles University of Oxford	Problems in the corpus investigation of stance
3:30pm	Tea Break
4:00pm	Verena Jung Heriot-Watt University	Using Webcorpora and other corpora to demonstrate the changes in collocation environment for English syntagmas when used in English and used as loan phrases in German
4:30pm	Alice Deignan University of Leeds	The contribution of corpus linguistics to cognitive categories
5:00pm	Close	